

graf. © Jacek Wiśniewski

Recent Developments in EU Law

Polish – Swiss Student Seminar

Krakow, 17-18 July 2006

“Sztuka Hall”, Larisch Palace, 12 Bracka St.

Prof. Stephan Breitenmoser, mgr Katarzyna Kłaczyńska

PROGRAM

Monday, 17th July:

9:45 - 10:00, opening part

10:00 - 10:45, Constitutional relation between EU and Member States legal orders (Piotr Sitarek)

10:45 - 11:30, New developments in the protection of minorities in Europe (Flavia Westermaier)

11:30 – 11:45, break

11:45 - 12:30, Remedies available for violation of the duty to refer with preliminary questions to the ECJ (Art. 234 TEC) by the Member States' courts – current developments (Agnieszka Kastelik-Smaza)

12:30 - 13:15, EU-Agencies (Georg Frey)

UNI
BASEL

C-LAW.ORG

13:15 – 14:15, lunch break

14:15 – 15:00, Class actions in Europe – who’s expecting and who’s afraid? (Ewelina Rumak)

15:00 - 15:45, Application of WTO legal norms in the EU legal order (Magda Karcz)

15:45 – 16:00, break

16:00 - 16:45, Asylum and migration in the EU (Marco Eichenberger)

16:45 - 17:30, Relationship between the EU Charter of Fundamental Rights and the ECHR (Agnieszka Bawińska)

Tuesday, 18th July:

9:45 - 10:30, Relation between the Schengen system and the EC law (cross-pillar relation) on example of case C-503/03 Commission v. Spain (Maciej Westfal)

10:30 - 11:15, C-105/03 Maria Pupino judgment – is the ECJ about to move principles of the Community law to the III pillar? (Justyna Bazarnik)

11:15 - 11:25, break

11:25 - 12:10, Collision between fundamental rights and internal market freedoms: C-112/00 Schmidberger and C-36/02 Omega case-studies (Karol Krzysztoń)

12:10 - 12:55, EU citizenship and free movement of persons (Lucia Martin)

12:55 – 13:05 break

13:05 – 13: 50 Charter of Fundamental Rights – development and current status (Ania Rataj)

13:50 – 14:10 closing part, granting diplomas

